ST. CECILIA'S GOT "FORMED"

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you" (Jeremiah 1:5)

God is a potter who wants to form out of the clay of our lives something beautiful. Formed.org is not just a website to teach us intellectual ideas or Catholic doctrine, but an instrument God wants to use to form us into the persons we were meant to be. I'm excited about this organization that we have contracted with to be available to our parish providing parish good solid catholic formation..

I hope you will take the time to look at it. Fr. John

11º DOMINGO DO TEMPO COMUM

Neste domingo, a Palavra que vamos reflectir recorda-nos a presença constante de Deus no mundo e a vontade que Ele tem de oferecer aos homens, a cada passo, a sua vida e a sua salvação. No entanto, a intervenção de Deus na história humana concretiza-se através daqueles que Ele chama e envia, para serem sinais vivos do seu amor e testemunhas da sua bondade. A primeira leitura apresenta-nos o Deus da "aliança", que elege um Povo para com ele estabelecer laços de comunhão e de familiaridade; a esse Povo, Jahwéh confia uma missão sacerdotal: Israel deve ser o Povo reservado para o serviço de Jahwéh, isto é, para ser um sinal de Deus no meio das outras nações. O Evangelho traz-nos o "discurso da missão". Nele, Mateus apresenta uma catequese sobre a escolha, o chamamento e o envio de "doze" discípulos (que representam a totalidade do Povo de Deus) a anunciar o "Reino". Esses "doze" serão os continuadores da missão de Jesus e deverão levar a proposta de salvação e de libertação que Deus fez aos homens em Jesus, a toda a terra. A segunda leitura sugere que a comunidade dos discípulos é fundamentalmente uma comunidade de pessoas a quem Deus ama. A sua missão no mundo é dar testemunho do amor de Deus pelos homens - um amor eterno, inquebrável, gratuito e absolutamente único.
